

NTC's Fire Alarm Systems Training

National Training Center's (NTC) Fire Alarm Systems (FAS) Training is thirty two (32) hours of online training. The training is designed to introduce the student to the fundamentals of fire alarm system design and installation, as well as specific application information for sample building fire alarm systems.

- Introduction to Fire Alarm Systems (1 hour)
- Fire Alarm Basics (1 hour)
- Life Safety & Building Codes (NFPA 101 & IBC) (2 hours)
- NFPA 72 (National Fire Alarm Code) (11 hours)
- NFPA 70 (National Electrical Code) (3 hours)
- Initiating Devices (2 hours)
- Notification Appliances (2 hours)
- Inspection & Testing (3 hours)
- Signatures and Detection (1 hour)
- Sprinkler System (1 hour)
- Networking for Fire Alarm (3 hours)
- Fire Alarm Sample Projects (2 hours)